

If

©Martin Browne

22 October 2007

DADGAD

D, Capo II

D D/C# D/B Asus D D/C# D/B Asus
If I climbed the highest mountain

D D/C# D/B Asus D D/C# D/B Asus
If I swam the widest sea

D D/C# D/B Asus D D/C# D/B Asus
If I could stop the world from turning

D D/C# D/B Asus D D/C# D/B Asus
Would you spend your life with me?

G D G Em A7
At close of day when shadows lengthen and when the morning rubs its eyes

D D/C# D/B Asus D D/C# D/B Asus
Will we know each other's heartbeat

D D/C# D/B Asus D D/C# D/B Asus
When this world's fetters set us free?

Will you share in my adventures?
Take the road to who knows where?
Watch the sun sink in the ocean?
Feel the sea salt in your hair?
At close of day when shadows lengthen and when the morning rubs its eyes
I will slay a thousand dragons
If I know you are waiting there

Let's feel the changing of the seasons
Sense the moon's hold on the tide
Count the colours in a sunset
See the golden eagle glide
At close of day when shadows lengthen and when the morning rubs its eyes
I'll take on all that life throws at me
With you standing at my side