©Martin Browne 11/01/2005

G Bm C G
Here I stand, my back to the land
C G C D
The sun sinks in a silvery sea
G Bm C G
The tide swells at the pull of the moon
C G D C
A voice in the distance is calling to me

Chorus:-

Em D C Em D C
Blow you west winds blow, Speed her home to me
Em Bm C G
The days tarry slowly, my poor heart is breaking
C G D
My love lies far over the sea

A proud ship waits in the harbour
Tomorrow at dawn she will sail with the tide
I must remain but my heart will sail with her
To the arms of my love `cross this ocean so wide

[Chorus]

Each night I dream of her bright eyes and sweet smile
I picture her walking with me by the sea
I long for the day that a ship might sail with her
Safe to the harbour, once more home to me

[Chorus] (twice)

So blow you west winds blow.....
