

I saw behind your eyes today DADGAD D Capo II
©Martin Browne 02/03/2003

D A D G A
I saw behind your eyes today
D A G A
And I knew that soon you'd go away
G A G A
They just couldn't hide a fear rooted deep inside
G A D G A
'Cause I saw behind your eyes today

I heard a trembling in your voice
Told me you thought you had no choice
You had counted the cost, some past battle your heart had lost
I heard a trembling in your voice

Bm A G A
But what if I told you that I could never let go
G A D G A
And leaving's not an option I could bear
Bm A G A
I know that it's painful but I'll fight 'til the bitter end
G A D G A
You have to believe how much I care

I looked inside your mind and cried
How could you believe I might have lied?
Just how hard must I try to convince you this love won't die?
I looked inside your mind and cried

(Bridge)

I felt your heart beat fast last night
Your body was close you held on tight
In the peace where we lay I knew all that your heart had to say
I felt your heart beat fast last night
